

ZERO HIV STIGMA DAY

21st JULY
12:00 - 6:15 PM
JUBILEE SQUARE, BRIGHTON

an international day of action

Rally on stage (from 5:15 until 6:15pm)
Speeches from community representatives
Hear from 'Positive Voices' speakers
Performance by the Rainbow Chorus

Activities and opportunities throughout the day
(12:00-5:15pm followed by the rally on stage)

Food and refreshments provided by Lunch Positive.
View health promotion messages on the Martin Fisher bus.
See the portrait exhibition from 'More to me than HIV'.
Free HIV testing at The Ledward Centre and library vending machine
Meet people living with HIV and learn about living with HIV today

Commemorating her birthday, 21st July has been chosen as Global Zero HIV Stigma Awareness Day to honour Prudence Mabele who was one of the first Black South African women to publicly share her HIV status.

Prudence © Creative Commons license - African Women's Development Fund (AWDF)

brought to you and supported by

